My step-by-step online course just opened for enrollment - for a very limited time - and I wanted to make sure that you don't miss the opportunity to learn all about it. The doors will be closing at 7pm (ET) on May 4, 2020. This is an excellent opportunity for you to gain traction on your goals, and build momentum toward expressing your unique creative voice in your upcoming paintings.

JOIN THE JOURNEY

"If you want a responsive, organized, and valuable resource to help guide you in your painting development, this is it!" -Marie D.

The Painterly Landscape course isn't as much an "online course" as it is a proven roadmap to achieve transformation in your paintings. It's the only program of its kind that...

1. Gives you a consistent practice plan to follow each week, so you KNOW that you are working toward your goal of bolder looser landscapes in pastel.
2. Provides a clear roadmap to help you reach your destination, so you won't be wandering around wondering where you're going or how you'll get there.
3. Cultivates a spirit of adventure and exploration in your work, and trip-wiring the debilitating effects of perfectionism.
4. Provides a community of fellow explorers to learn and grow with, so you aren't left alone to struggle in isolation.
5. Delivers a bounty of new techniques and approaches, with clear teaching and inspiring demonstrations to empower your painting, so you can say goodbye to the fog of confusion and boredom.

Enroll today and let me be your guide as I empower you to create the kind of paintings you've always dreamed of.

"It doesn't matter where you are in your painting journey, you will be encouraged without being intimidated in this course." -Deeds I.

P.S. This course will only be available until May 4, after which the cart will close and you won't be able to join me and a group of fellow adventurers on this creative journey. I don't want you to miss out!

Enroll today, and start your journey toward bolder, looser paintings in pastel!
