APS Announces: SERIES "AA"

A New Series of Adventures in Pastel

A new Adventure Series begins in January, 2021. All new Adventures and another great prize awaits some lucky artist.

As a CURRENT APS member, you are invited to join us as we continue to explore and expand new skills with pastels. Each month we will announce a new skill building challenge that will allow you to work at home but then share your painting online with your fellow members in an informal show on the APS website. Our goal is to allow us all to stay connected, work together and enjoy doing art.

Each adventure will be announced with specific guidelines and you will have a designated time period to complete the challenge. To keep the event fun and fresh, please honor the guidelines and complete the project in the allotted time frame. Our first adventure of the new series will be announced on Wednesday, January 20th at 9am. Join us in this new way to paint together while staying safe. Our aim is to have some fun as only artists can!

The informal online show is a sharing opportunity and, thus, there will be no judging of the artwork. However, for each activity you submit, you will receive one participation point. Paintings submitted do not have to be fully completed. At the end of six months, the prize will be awarded to the artist with the most points. This artist will receive the fabulous Townsend Thin Line Pastel Set! In the event of a tie, we will hold a very special "tie breaker" ...to be announced if necessary.

So get ready for the reveal of the first adventure on Wednesday, January 20, 2021 at 9:00 am! NEW POLICY...Artists will have a FULL WEEK to submit their painting. Simply keep an eye on your email to receive all of the participation details.
